Philosophy-Goals-Objectives and Comprehensive Plans

Philosophy

The written philosophy and goals of the district are the official foundation upon which the Governing Board and staff decisions are to be based.

The Superintendent shall annually review with the Board the philosophy and goals of the district, and if they are deemed current and appropriate shall be readopted. If the Board finds they should be modified, it shall appoint a committee of staff and citizens for the purpose of reviewing the philosophy and goals and making recommendations to the Board.
