Gifts to School Personnel

It is understood that no school employee is to receive any commission, expense-paid trips, or anything of value from individuals or companies selling equipment or materials required in the operation of the public schools. This would include the purchase and use of all materials and other supplies or items needed for repair, maintenance and operation of the school plant, transportation, cafeterias, offices and for the conducting of student classes, activities and organizations.

Academic materials such as textbooks intended for review by professional staff are excluded or are not considered to be a gift.
