Tear Gas Canisters

Employees of the district desiring to carry tear gas dispensers may exercise their civil right to do so if they comply with all applicable regulations established for the certification and use of such materials. The employee shall assume full responsibility for the care and use of such material, as well as satisfactorily completing the training required by related regulations.

Public safety officers (peace officers) are authorized the possession and use of tear gas dispensers, consistent with state law and within the duty requirements established by the public safety officer job description.
