

Huntington Beach Union High School District Board Policies and Administrative Regulations

BP 7112
Page 1 of 1

New Construction

Determining Extent of New Construction

The extent of new construction shall be determined by the increase in enrollment, by adopted student-teacher ratios, by changing educational programs, by the condition of existing facilities, and within present and projected budgetary limitations.

Legal Reference:

EDUCATION CODE

35275 New school planning and design (re cooperative relations with recreation and park authorities)

39001 Purchase or improvement of school lands

39170 General power of district governing board to build and maintain a schoolhouse

39172 Establishment of additional schools

Policy

adopted: 1/13/87