

Huntington Beach Union High School District Board Policies and Administrative Regulations

BP 7511
Page 1 of 1

New Construction

Naming of Facility

School sites will be named within thirty (30) days after acquisition.

The name given to a school site does not by necessity determine the name of the school to be built on that site.

District schools will be named by the Board no later than thirty (30) days after authorization is given to the architect to develop preliminary plans.

Geographic location should be given prime consideration in school name selection.

Legal Reference:

EDUCATION CODE

35160 Authority of governing boards, commencing January 1, 1976

Policy

adopted: 1/13/87